

/WHAT IS ASSESSED HERE:
HOW YOU UNDERSTAND AND EXPERIENCE INTERCONNECTEDNESS,
VERSUS VALUES LIKE AUTONOMY AND INDEPENDENCE.

What this tells you:

This graph shows the two dimensions of cognitive and behavioral, meaning that you have an intellectual understanding of this aspect, and you also act upon it. We don't have enough data to report if or how you connect with your feelings related to this item.

YOUR SMI RESPONSES INDICATE THAT you have a clear understanding that we are all interconnected, even in non-obvious ways, and that no one is really fully independent.

This understanding is the framework for your behaviors: Seeing yourself as part of a larger whole, you pay attention to the input of stakeholders when analyzing a problem and seeking effective solutions. We cannot comment on how you feel about this topic, since you indicated (by choosing "neither") that you did not find yourself represented by either of the available options.

/THINK ABOUT HOW YOU CAN FURTHER LEVERAGE YOUR STRENGTHS AND MANAGE SOME
OF THE LIMITATIONS WHICH MAY BE HOLDING YOU BACK:

While certain cultures have a collectivistic framework, most of the western-northern culture - widely exported and globalized - is individualistic and celebrates personal achievement. Do you experience this unspoken expectation in your daily life - to be independent, to outperform others, to be self-reliant or perhaps to demonstrate your value in competitive settings? Have you sensed the contradiction between these two paradigms, one valuing competition and self-reliance, the other promoting collaboration and inclusion?

How realistic and even feasible is this idea of autonomy? Let's pause for a moment: Can you name one achievement that was purely and authentically your own without another person playing any role in it?

As you further develop your empathy and social sensitivity, you may become more conscious of the many ways in which we are interconnected, and the positive impact of paying attention to this in our everyday decisions. You will be able to share your new perspectives with others, and it may expand their thinking horizon.

That may be an interesting task ahead.

/THOUGHTS TO PONDER WHEN YOU CONSIDER THE SM:

You may not have given it much thought, but the polarities of independence vs. interconnectedness and competition vs. collaboration are of particular relevance when focusing on sustainability. To begin with, the environmental and social challenges are complex and multidimensional, making it impossible for any one person to solve on their own. It is only through collective thinking, action and the collaboration of multiple stakeholders that we will be able to develop alternatives. (This, by the way, makes sustainability a great opportunity for contributing personal skills to a larger cause).

/HOW ABOUT YOU TRY:

We invite you to explore what autonomy means for you. What are the roots of this value for you, perhaps in your upbringing or in your current context? Is this authentically a priority for you, or is it something automatically inherited, or perhaps adopted without giving it much thought? How can you bring your collaborative spirit to new contexts, where it might be much needed?

When we see interconnectedness, we understand the importance of diversity, and our decisions and actions become more inclusive, which contributes to the sustainability of the whole.
