

/WHAT IS ASSESSED HERE: HOW YOU UNDERSTAND AND EXPERIENCE INTERCONNECTEDNESS, VERSUS VALUES LIKE AUTONOMY AND INDEPENDENCE.

YOUR SMI RESPONSES INDICATE THAT you enjoy the adrenaline of the challenges; they motivate you!

You are also comfortable winning or outperforming others. It is a great feeling for you, and you find the pursuit of success very exciting.

Recognition may be a reward, but it is not always external: it can also be for your personal satisfaction and sense of accomplishment. You feel proud of your achievements and perceive them as a validation of your autonomy and personal capabilities in action. It is important for you to be self-sufficient as much as possible.

/THINK ABOUT HOW YOU CAN FURTHER LEVERAGE YOUR STRENGTHS AND MANAGE SOME OF THE LIMITATIONS WHICH MAY BE HOLDING YOU BACK:

This combination of aspects can come at a price. It is not always possible to live up to other people's expectations, not to mention our own, which often are even higher!

Furthermore, in many settings where teamwork or collaboration is expected, it may be challenging to balance your individual performance with the collective contributions, and your personal efforts, gifts or skills may go unrecognized, or possibly even unappreciated.

We cannot comment further on how you think or behave in relation to this topic, since you indicated (by choosing "neither") that you did not find yourself represented by any of the available options.

/THOUGHTS TO PONDER WHEN YOU CONSIDER THE SM:

You may not have given it much thought, but the polarities of independence vs. interconnectedness and competition vs. collaboration are of particular relevance when focusing on sustainability. To begin with, the environmental and social challenges are complex and multidimensional, making it impossible for any one person to solve on their own. It is only through collective thinking, action and the collaboration of multiple stakeholders that we will be able to develop alternatives. (This, by the way, makes sustainability a great opportunity for contributing personal skills to a larger cause).

While certain cultures have a collectivistic framework, most of the western-northern culture - widely exported and globalized - is individualistic and celebrates personal achievement. However, is this realistic and even feasible?

/HOW ABOUT YOU TRY:

Let's pause for a moment: Can you name one achievement that was purely and authentically your own without another person playing any role in it?

We invite you to explore what autonomy means for you. What are the roots of this value for you, perhaps in your upbringing or in your current context? Is this authentically a priority for you, or is it something automatically inherited, or adopted without giving it much thought?

When we see interconnectedness, we understand the importance of diversity, and our decisions and actions become more inclusive, which contributes to the sustainability of the whole.
