

/WHAT IS ASSESSED HERE:
HOW YOU UNDERSTAND AND EXPERIENCE INTERCONNECTEDNESS,
VERSUS VALUES LIKE AUTONOMY AND INDEPENDENCE.

YOUR SMI RESPONSES INDICATE THAT you thrive in contexts where you can compete and work towards being your personal best.

You believe independence and autonomy are very important aspects of human life, perhaps as a combination of a given right, a personal goal and a precious virtue to cultivate. They signify ownership and accountability to you.

While we cannot comment on your feelings about this topic, since you indicated (by choosing "neither") that you did not find yourself represented by either of the available options, this combination of aspects may come at a price since valuing self-reliance can be a high expectation we set to ourselves.

/THINK ABOUT HOW YOU CAN FURTHER LEVERAGE YOUR STRENGTHS AND MANAGE SOME
OF THE LIMITATIONS WHICH MAY BE HOLDING YOU BACK:

It is not always possible to live up to other people's expectations, not to mention our own, which often are even higher. Furthermore, in many settings where teamwork or collaboration is expected, it may be challenging to balance your individual performance with the collective contributions, and your personal efforts, gifts or skills may go unrecognized, or possibly even unappreciated.

Let's pause for a moment: Can you name one achievement that was purely and authentically your own without another person playing any role in it?

/THOUGHTS TO PONDER WHEN YOU CONSIDER THE SM:

You may not have given it much thought, but the polarities of independence vs. interconnectedness and competition vs. collaboration are of particular relevance when focusing on sustainability. To begin with, the environmental and social challenges are complex and multidimensional, making it impossible for any one person to solve on their own. It is only through collective thinking, action and the collaboration of multiple stakeholders that we will be able to develop alternatives. (This, by the way, makes sustainability a great opportunity for contributing personal skills to a larger cause).

While certain cultures have a collectivistic framework, most of the western-northern culture - widely exported and globalized - is individualistic and celebrates personal achievement. However, is this realistic and even feasible?

/HOW ABOUT YOU TRY:

We invite you to explore what autonomy means for you. What are the roots of this value for you, perhaps in your upbringing or in your current context? Is this authentically a priority for you, or is it something automatically inherited, or adopted without giving it much thought?

If you have identified an accomplishment that you consider authentically your merit, make a list of who may have played a role in it. Rank them, in order of relevance or impact on your success. What does this exercise tell you about the polarity of autonomy versus interconnectedness?

When we see interconnectedness, we understand the importance of diversity, and our decisions and actions become more inclusive, which contributes to the sustainability of the whole.
