

/WHAT IS ASSESSED HERE: HOW AWARE YOU ARE ABOUT THE ANCHORS OF YOUR IDENTITY AND YOUR VALUES; HOW YOU FEEL AND ACT IN CONSEQUENCE.

What this tells you:

This graph shows that your approach to the assessed topic is both cognitive and affective, but you are not necessarily translating what you know and feel into actions. You might use this information to explore new habits and daily changes for a sustainability purpose.

YOUR SMI RESPONSES INDICATE THAT you believe the paradigm we have long been living with is due for a revision, because values like growth and progress may be linked to an assumption of unlimited resources, which may not be realistic.

But, according to the selections you made in the instrument, this understanding is not easily translated into behaviors. The reason is that you don't see pragmatic alternatives at hand.

You stay focused:

So you focus on managing your own personal obligations and challenges, and you don't have the energy to entertain what may sound as 'philosophical' concerns about humanity or the planet's future. You know that your views are not always "politically correct", but this is how it is for you today.

/A VALUABLE (AND UNCOMFORTABLE) TENSION.

At the same time, this creates an uncomfortable feeling of misalignment between some of the things you do and how you would prefer to see yourself. You may have been taught certain values, like being a winner, not being a loser, remaining rational at all times, having more to be more. And you became these values.

But then something has begun to shift and these values don't feel entirely OK any longer. This may make you feel confused, perhaps a bit guilty at times. You may even feel more grateful or indebted to others for their help in your achievements than stubbornly proud of being a self-made person.

Well, this is a very important moment of awareness, because change starts with our noticing some discomfort about something, and we want to do something about it to feel better (or at least less bad). In this case, you seem to have achieved this very important step. Of course it can be overwhelming to think about the complex problems. But what if you start small?

/THINK ABOUT HOW YOU CAN LEVERAGE THOSE STRENGTHS AND MANAGE SOME OF THE LIMITATIONS WHICH MAY BE HOLDING YOU BACK:

Your understanding and intuition are not mainstream, and thus very important to drive much needed change. How happy are you with how you are sharing your valuable perspectives with others? Do you feel you are doing it as much as you could?

Let's pause for a moment.

/THOUGHTS TO PONDER WHEN YOU CONSIDER THE SM:

This survey was designed around the Sustainability Mindset, which is a way of thinking and being, to optimally adapt to the moment in which we are living. This Mindset focuses on using our natural gifts to shape a better future, for ourselves and for all, the ecosystem included.

Research has proven that what may sound overwhelming, actually can be broken down into small, realistic ways to contribute to the greater good, and, as you well know, feel great at the same time. The first step is taking a fresh look at what surrounds us.

Undoubtedly, there are social and environment related challenges everywhere. Some happen locally, others across borders. Science has been linking many of these issues to human behaviors, such as consumption of unhealthy foods, depletion of natural resources, pollution or contamination of air, soil and water. And we are left to deal with the consequences today, trapped in a paradigm that prioritizes values that have a negative impact, such as thoughtless consumption.

/HOW ABOUT YOU TRY:

Have you identified some of your activities that may not live up to your personal expectations of living in a 'sustainable' way? In what new ways could you make some changes? Sometimes we do not have the power to control a situation, but we always have unlimited power to influence, with our words, attitudes, talking or writing.

How about exploring a few of your unused possibilities?

Another suggestion is that you explore the roots of some values that are important for you, such as success, winning, and outperforming others. Where can you trace their origins? Perhaps in your upbringing, or in your current context? What do they represent for you, which makes them important? Are they authentically yours, or are they perhaps inherited, adopted without giving much thought to it?

When we explore our personal values, beliefs, assumptions and motivations, we gain greater control over our actions and we can see new alternative behaviors.
